

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation Nos. 731-TA-1560-1564 (Preliminary)]

Raw Honey from Argentina, Brazil, India, Ukraine, and Vietnam

DETERMINATIONS

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject investigations, the United States International Trade Commission (“Commission”) determines, pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 (“the Act”), that there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured by reason of imports of raw honey from Argentina, Brazil, India, Ukraine, and Vietnam, provided for in subheading 0409.00.00 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, that are alleged to be sold in the United States at less than fair value (“LTFV”).²

COMMENCEMENT OF FINAL PHASE INVESTIGATIONS

Pursuant to section 207.18 of the Commission’s rules, the Commission also gives notice of the commencement of the final phase of its investigations. The Commission will issue a final phase notice of scheduling, which will be published in the Federal Register as provided in section 207.21 of the Commission’s rules, upon notice from the U.S. Department of Commerce (“Commerce”) of affirmative preliminary determinations in the investigations under § 733(b) of the Act, or, if the preliminary determinations are negative, upon notice of affirmative final determinations in those investigations under § 735(a) of the Act. Parties that filed entries of appearance in the preliminary phase of the investigations need not enter a separate appearance for the final phase of the investigations. Industrial users, and, if the merchandise under investigation is sold at the retail level, representative consumer organizations have the right to appear as parties in Commission antidumping investigations. The Secretary will prepare a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to the investigations.

BACKGROUND

On April 21, 2021, American Honey Producers Association, Bruce, South Dakota, and the Sioux Honey Association, Sioux City, Iowa filed petitions with the Commission and Commerce, alleging that an industry in the United States is materially injured by reason of LTFV imports of raw honey from Argentina, Brazil, India, Ukraine, and Vietnam. Accordingly, effective April 21, 2021, the Commission instituted antidumping duty investigation Nos. 731-TA-1560-1564 (Preliminary).

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigations and of a public conference to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of April 27, 2021 (86 FR 22265). In light of the restrictions on access to the Commission building due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Commission conducted its conference through written testimony and video conference. All persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to participate.

The Commission made these determinations pursuant to § 733(a) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1673b(a)). It completed and filed its determinations in these investigations on June 7, 2021. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 5204 (June 2021), entitled Raw Honey from Argentina, Brazil, India, Ukraine, and Vietnam: Investigation Nos. 731-TA-1560-1564 (Preliminary).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: June 7, 2021.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.
